The Economic Club of Memphis in partnership with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis – Memphis Branch is pleased to present the 2012 Economic Outlook Breakfast on Thursday, December 1, 2011. The speakers will be William Emmons, Assistant Vice President and Economist in the Division of Banking Supervision and Regulation at the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis and William F. Fox, Director of the Center for Business and Economic Research at the University of Tennessee. They will be discussing economic projections for the upcoming year on both a national and state level. A breakfast buffet will begin at 7:15 am. This meeting is open to the public at a registration fee of $25. Please share this information with friends and colleagues who may be interested in attending.

Bill Emmons has been with the St. Louis Fed since 1995. He also serves as an Adjunct Professor of Finance in the John M. Olin Business School at Washington University in St. Louis. Prior to joining the St. Louis Fed and Washington University, he was on the faculty of the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College, in Hanover, New Hampshire.

Bill Fox is the William B. Stokely Distinguished Professor of Business and the Director of the Center for Business and Economic Research at the University of Tennessee. He is a past President and recipient of the Steven D. Gold Award from the National Tax Association and former Chairman of the Economics Department at the University of Tennessee.
